Where the subject matter for which a patent is being sought is or has been involved in litigation, the existence of such litigation and any other material information arising therefrom must be brought to the attention of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. Examples of such material information include evidence of possible prior public use or sales, questions of inventorship, prior art, allegations of "fraud," "inequitable conduct," and "violation of duty of disclosure." Another example of such material information is any assertion that is made during litigation which is contradictory to assertions made to the examiner. *Environ Prods., Inc. v. Thus, the purpose of this disclosure is to bring to the attention of the Patent and Trademark Office the existence of the litigation so that the Examiner in the subject application can make an independent inquiry into the litigation if the Examiner deems it necessary. It is Applicant's intent to disclose any material information that may arise in the future from the disclosed litigation.
